About Me:

I recently graduated with a B.Sc. in CSE from Bangladesh University, and I am passionate about technology, problem-solving, and research. An enthusiastic learner with a strong foundation in computer science, data analysis, and artificial intelligence, I aspire to grow as a Prompt Engineer, Data Scientist, and Researcher. I am committed to exploring innovative solutions in AI, natural language processing, and sustainable technology, driving efficiency, advancing knowledge, and making impactful contributions to industry and society.
